

2011 World Scholar-Athlete Games

What's this? The World Scholar-Athlete Games are a unique opportunity for young people to pursue their athletic and artistic interests together with other scholar-athletes from around the world. The one week program also features enrichment activities from pop music performances and celebrity visits to discussions of world events.

When does it take place? From June 26 to July 4, 2011 at the University of Connecticut.

Who can apply? All young people aged 15-19 as of June 26, 2011.

What sports/arts are offered? Baseball, Basketball, Chess, Golf, Field Hockey, Lacrosse, Rugby, Soccer, Squash, Softball, Swimming, Tennis, Track & Field, Volleyball, Art, Choir, Culinary, Dance, Photography, Symphony Orchestra, Theatre, Writing/Poetry.

How much does it cost? U.S. Embassy Luxembourg offers three scholarships (including all fees, meals, lodgings and travel) for Luxembourg citizens/residents.

How to apply? Apply online at <http://www.internationalsport.com/wsag/> before 15 January 2011

Where to learn more? Visit the web site or contact the organization at: Institute for International Sport, 3045 Kingston Road, P.O. Box 1710, Kingston, Rhode Island 02881-1710, Phone: 00-1-(401) 874-2375, Fax: 00-1-(401) 874-2429, Email: info@internationalsport.com or contact US Embassy Public Affairs Section at LuxembourgPublicAffairs@state.gov

